

Journal of Prisoners on Prisons.V 12

The Journal of Prisoners on Prisons provides a space for prisoners to voice their hearts and minds about their experience. All of the articles and essays are written by people who are either in prison, or have been imprisoned, and the artwork is done by people in prison. In each edition of the Journal, the contributors focus on the human aspect of prison life and on society in general. Volume 12 of the Journal focuses on macro-analyses of the prison in the context of the new world Order, and on the micro-insights of the effects of prison experience on the individual lives of people.
